

Rules to live by

The following rules and norms will help you get the most from your experience as an OFA Community Engagement Fellow.

Respect, Empower, Include, Organize.

Everything we do revolves around these principles.

Have fun!

This is most important! You were selected among hundreds of applicants to learn new organizing skills and make an impact in your own community. Learn as much as you can and enjoy yourself throughout the process.

Keep these questions in mind:

How will this program help me grow as a leader? What issue am I passionate about, and how can I engage my community around this issue? By the end of this program, I will succeed if...?

Soak it all in.

You will learn a lot throughout your experience. Take every opportunity to learn not just how we do things, but why.

Be professional.

As an OFA fellow, you are expected to behave professionally online and offline. Be respectful of other people and the program. Follow up on your commitment and meet deadlines. If you must withdraw from the program, please be honest and let us know immediately so we can adapt our plans accordingly.

Leave a footprint.

You can't build a movement if you don't tell anyone about it! Make sure you're using Twitter and Facebook to show the world that you're fired up and ready to organize using #OFAAction and #OFAFellows. As you do, you'll notice that other generations of fellows are doing the same. Feel free to interact with and support their work, too—they're part of our OFA family!
